U.S. Sugar Program Puts Thousands of Georgia Jobs At Risk

While the U.S. sugar program benefits one, small, special interest group - U.S. sugar producers - it puts at unnecessary risk more than 600,000 American jobs, including up to approximately 16,500 in Georgia.

According to 2012 Census data, the top three sectors for sugar-using industry employment in Georgia are:

- Bread and bakery product manufacturing;
- Cookie, cracker and pasta manufacturing; and
- Snack food manufacturing.

The Department of Commerce has found that for every one sugar-growing job in the United States saved through high U.S. sugar prices, approximately three American manufacturing jobs are lost. Those are jobs Georgia cannot afford to lose.

The Coalition for Sugar Reform is an alliance of consumers, food and beverage manufacturers, trade advocates, environmental groups, taxpayer watchdog organizations, responsible government advocates, think tanks and other interests. Our objective is to reform the federal government's intrusive, inefficient, restrictive and outdated sugar program - a decades-old subsidy that has repeatedly failed to provide adequate supplies of sugar to the U.S. market.
